Mr. Edward Shockro

Mr. Shockro accepts his award for Daughters of the American Revolution Outstanding Teacher of American History.

Ms. Shockro accepts the yearbook dedication on behalf of her brother, Mr. Shockro.

This past winter, North Attleboro High School and the North Attleboro community were burdened by yet another hard loss. We lost a leader, friend, and a beloved teacher. This teacher was incredibly dedicated to his career, which he started in 1972 after graduating from Bridgewater State College, gaining 42 years of experience teaching at NAHS. He taught many different classes including World History, American History, Psychology, and even English in his time here. This man received many awards throughout his tenure, including several grants from the National Endowment for the Humanities and from the Gildner Lehrman Institute of American History to travel the world, learning more about his subject so he could share more knowledge with his students.

This teacher was truly loved by each and every one of his students. Everyone loved his commentary during movies in class, which included a favorite about the Dust Bowl. When he began telling one of his crazy stories, you could hear a pin drop because of how transfixed his students were. A favorite story that he told year in and year out was when he was interrogated by East German security officials after sneaking over the border from West Berlin. All of his students were enthralled by his fascination with former President of the United States Ronald Reagan. One of his classes even planned to buy him a life size cardboard cutout of the former President, but they unfortunately were unable to find one before the end of that school year.

This teacher gave everything he had to his job and his students, earning the North Attleboro High School Alumni Association's Excellence in Education Award and the Daughters of the American Revolution award for Outstanding Teacher of American History in 2009. He proudly held dual citizenship status with the United States and Ireland, and he loved volunteering in Ireland during his summers. Upon hearing of his death, teachers and students at NAHS were deeply saddened, and some took to Twitter to voice their condolences, saying he was easily the best history teacher they'd ever had and a great teacher and an even better person. He was a great man and teacher and touched the lives of many people throughout his career at NAHS and will be greatly missed by his students and coworkers. His commitment to his students and their love for him is why, the North Attleboro High School Class of 2014 voted to dedicate this year's Northern Light yearbook to Mr. Edward Shockro.

Editor's Desk

This year's editors worked tirelessly, trying to emulate some of our favorite parts of our favorite magazines.

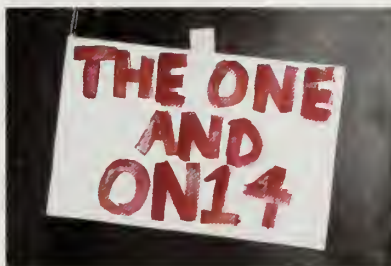

BEHIND THE STORY

We all wish high school was more like a magazine-- light-hearted and leisurely, but still informative. And, so when creating the 2013-14 yearbook, we tried to emulate some of our favorite magazines. With a clean and simple layout, the yearbook captures a population of students who are not only dedicated and hardworking, but fun and lively as well. So even if we didn't always look like we were on the set of a photo shoot and not every exam was as easy as a magazine survey, there's no doubt that this year, we had the time of our lives.

THE CLASS MOTO

The class of 2014 wanted to be remembered as a great one, which is why we adorned the halls and our teeshirts with the slogan, "THE ONE AND ON14".

*I have learned,
that if one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live
the life he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected
in common hours.*

Class Ode 2014

*Life is one big confusing maze with twists and turns that jump out at us.
We never know how things will pan out.*

*We are starting new chapters in life,
And turning to a new page.
We will all grow old someday and look back at these moments in time.
Each second, time is passing us by.
Possess it: grow, celebrate,
dance, laugh, cry, live, stay chill.*

*We know that teenagers are the human jigsaw puzzles of the world.
We've found ourselves in the plot of our own coming-of-age stories.
We've found laughs, heartache, and sadness.*

*We've matured and grown, together,
and individually too.*

*And all though this surrealism will fade,
And this chapter will turn,
We will have the comfort we found in each other.
And although this day is our last
together,
We are all our own sailboats,
Sailing through the green lights of success,
Sailing to our own destinies,
Sailing with tremendous boxes of great hope.*

*We all have our own carpe diem moments.
And we will have more. We will have yachts and chase adventures.
We will thrive, cure cancer, win
Nobel Peace Prizes, feed Africa, and go to France one day just because.*

We are at our cornerstones and we will go nowhere but up.

Class History

Freshman Year

by Kelly O'Neill

2010 was brimming with events such as the Haiti Earthquake, the Oil Spill in the Gulf of Mexico, and the release of the first Apple iPad, but most notably for us, it was our freshman year.

We were brand new to the school just like our principal, Mr. Holcomb. We were incredibly driven and bustling with energy. We eagerly plunged into sports, music, acting and clubs. We entered high school anxiously as we fit our books into skinny lockers, sat in the freshman pit at lunch, and got lost in the hallways. We had to adjust to the freshman lifestyle and stick

We elected Colin Quinn as President, Ellis Badger as Vice President, Kerrin McTernan as Secretary, and Kelly O'Neill as Treasurer.

We flaunted our yellow at the Homecoming Rally and made our way into the rowdy crowd at the football games. We danced the night away at the Freshman-Sophomore Social.

We learned how to balance academics and extracurriculars as we adjusted to the fast pace of high school. We made a name for ourselves as the class that was vastly well-rounded from the start. From freshman year to this day, we have undergone a period of significant growth, but we're not done. I can't wait to see what the future holds for all of us as we continue to flourish.

Sophomore Year

by Evan Sweeney

"How many more days of school left?" is the first thought in every sophomore's head going to their first day of school.

The second year of being a high school student is unlike any other, not quite as embarrassing as being a freshman, but not nearly as respectable as being a junior. Sophomore year was a grind, but with the leadership of President Colin Quinn, Vice President Jillian Costello, Secretary Allison McHugh, and Treasurer Kelly O'Neill, the Class of 2014 managed to survive.

We bursted onto the scene; in the classroom, on the field, in the theatre and in the art studios; making names for ourselves and building reputations day by day.

By this time, we had NAHS all figured out, spending your SLPs in the Media Center, knowing if you saw Ms. B in the hallway, walk the other way, and most importantly carry around loose quarters to feed Quinny's candy machine. We became pretty good at being high school students' eventually, balancing our after school activities with our class work while maintaining a reasonable social life all on six hours of sleep, four if you're the class president.

Junior Year

by Jill Costello

As we entered junior year, we got the feel for what it was like to be upperclassmen in high school for the first time. Since we were freshmen we had been told that junior year was the most important and that our success was imperative.

Between the SAT's, ACT's, and AP classes, we knew we had a tough year ahead of us. With these high expectations we were feeling the stress, but our large involvement in sports, music groups, theater productions, and clubs helped take our minds off all of the school work, at least for a little while. Junior year we elected Colin Quinn as President, myself as Vice President, Ali McHugh as Secretary, and Kelly O'Neill as Treasurer. With the help of our two class advisors, Mr. Ferguson and Mrs. Caldwell, we were able to put on various events that helped to create a very exciting year for the class.

For most of us, this was the year where we began to drive and park in the junior lot, which seemed miles away from the school in the snowy winter. At the rallies we became much louder, and much more involved as a group in all of the competitions during Homecoming Week. We made ourselves known when we dominated the Spirit Contest, beating out the seniors for first place.

As prom approached, excitement filled the junior class as we anticipated it being one of the best nights of our high school careers, and it was. Our theme, "Cities across America," combined with the DJ, photo booth, and ice cream bar helped create a memorable night for everyone there.

On March 20th, a very special member of the junior class, Mallorie Lindo, unfortunately passed away. Through Mal, our class came together and was more united than ever before. We learned to appreciate our opportunities and we cherished the time we got to spend with our friends and classmates. Junior year brought lasting memories to the Class of 2014, and prepared us to take the final steps of our high school career next year.

Senior Year

by Colin Quinn

Senior year was finally here. It was the beginning of the end and it came quicker than we all expected. Now it was our turn to be rulers of the school. We were ready to take on our new responsibilities as role models but we were also just as ready to leave.

The beginning half of senior year, had us swamped with college applications and then left us anxiously waiting for decisions from schools. On top of this, we continued to work hard in our rigorous courses and somehow still managed to dominate in our games, kill our performances and show our true talents. This year would also be the last time that we would put on the Big Red uniform, perform in the Cobb Theatre, spend break in the senior hall, park in the senior lot or eat in the senior pit and even though this was a year of lasts, we still enjoyed every second of it.

To lead our class, we elected, myself, Colin Quinn for President, Jill Costello for Vice President, Evan Sweeney for Secretary and Kelly O'Neill for Treasurer. Along with the help from class advisors, Mr. Ferguson and Mrs. Caldwell, we were able to put on many memorable senior events. Starting with the Homecoming Week, where the seniors owned the rally and then took to the classy gym floor for their final homecoming dance. In the spring, JT Kleczkowski was crowned Mr. NAHS and all the performers had the sold-out crowd laughing in tears. Our Senior Prom was magnificent, leaving us with hoarse voices, sore feet, bags of fish, and memories that will last a lifetime. We then finished off the year with our week of senior activities.

We defined the qualities of a senior class and whether it be the Friday nights in the fall cheering on the football team, the Saturday nights in winter screaming the infamous hockey chants, the bottomless cup of coffee at coffee house or sitting in the seats of the theater, we all showed our support towards one another. We made our marks on NAHS in the classroom, on the field, in the theatre, in our art, in our community, in the polls, on Twitter or even on YouTube.

After four years here at NAHS, we now have what it takes to be successful, fulfill our dreams and conquer any challenges we might face. The Class of 2014 leaves behind an irreplaceable legacy because we were, the one and only.

What a year for the class of 2015. The long hours of studying and tedious preparation for the dreaded SATs finally paid off! The Juniors stepped up and excelled in big leadership roles for sports, arts, music, the Theatre Company, and other extra curricular activities. It has also been a very productive and important year for the class of 2015. With all new class officers and new advisors, we prepared for the hard work ahead. After realizing the many obstacles and challenges of the coming months, we combined our individual talents, work ethic, and creativity to put our class on the road to success. Five of us had never done anything like this before, but we were all determined to succeed. We established a new efficient and organized system to collect class dues. We worked together to raise a large amount of money in a short period of time through fun activities. We chose to collect donations for the American Cancer Society at the homecoming game. Prom and homecoming week were a great success this year thanks in part to all the hard work by...

Junior Prom

This year, the class of 2015 held their Junior Prom at Dimitri's Functions in Foxboro on April 5, 2014. The prom theme was Enchanted Forest and everybody had a great time! We danced the night away and made memories we will never forget.

This year's prom court consisted of Matt Leary, Eilish Mendonca, Andrew Kayata, Ally Post, Nikki Cretien, Chris Crawley, Ryan Ma and Ali Hayes. Teddy Nolan and Marissa Moore were elected Prom King and Queen for 2014. Overall our first prom was a success and we look forward to Senior Prom next year.

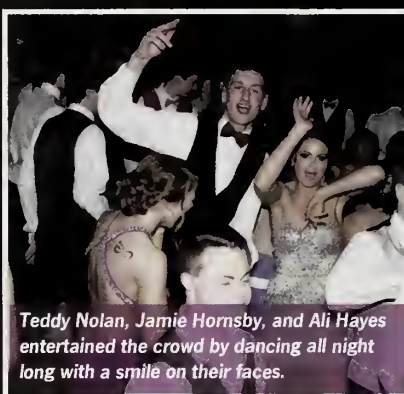

By: Ryan Ma

Matt Conway and Ryan Roche show off their moves on the dance floor.

Brennan Smith stands out among the crowd as he dances to the music.

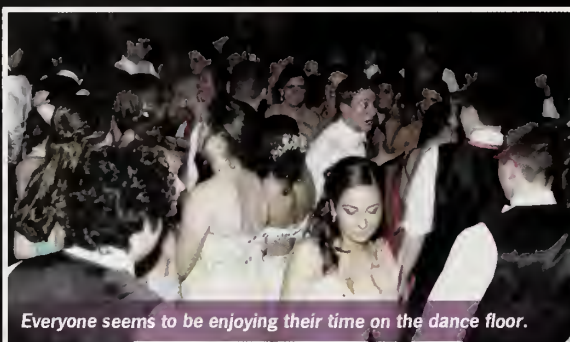

Teddy Nolan, Jamie Hornsby, and Ali Hayes entertained the crowd by dancing all night long with a smile on their faces.

These friends pose for the camera and enjoy their time on the dance floor.

The Prom King and Queen share a romantic dance.

Everyone seems to be enjoying their time on the dance floor.

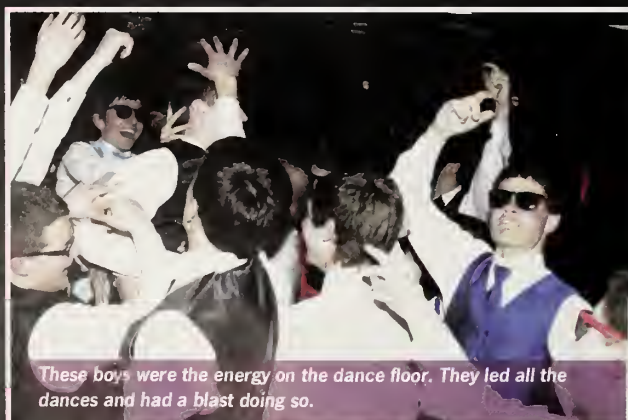

The dance floor is crowded and full of friendly faces. Everyone seems to be having a great time.

These friends are having a blast on the dance floor.

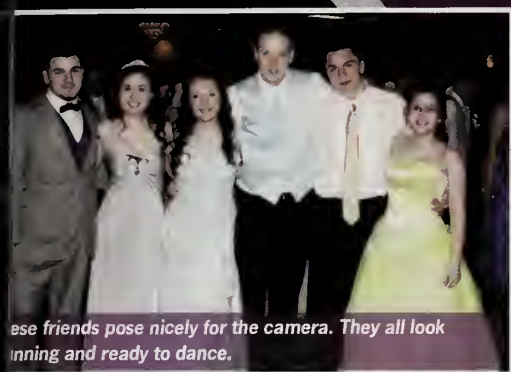

These girls hold hands as they dance and sing along to a popular song.

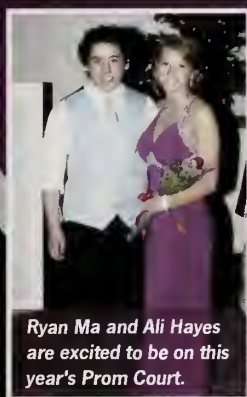

These boys were the energy on the dance floor. They led all the dances and had a blast doing so.

The Prom Court consisted of Matt Leary, Eilish Mendonca, Andrew Kayata, Ally Post, Nikki Cretien, Chris Crawley, Ryan Ma and Ali Hayes. The Prom King and Queen were Teddy Nolan and Marissa Moore.

These friends pose nicely for the camera. They all look happy and ready to dance.

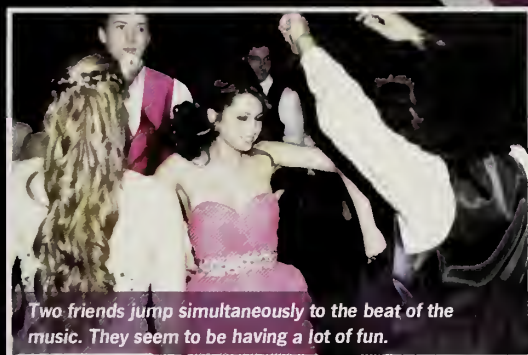

Ryan Ma and Ali Hayes are excited to be on this year's Prom Court.

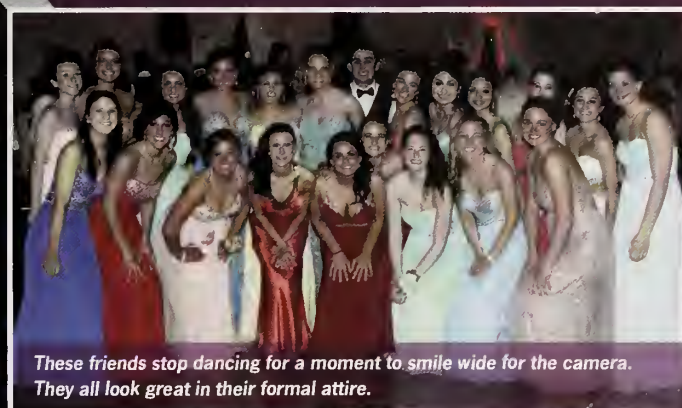

These friends were always seen on the dance floor and danced the night away at this year's Junior Prom.

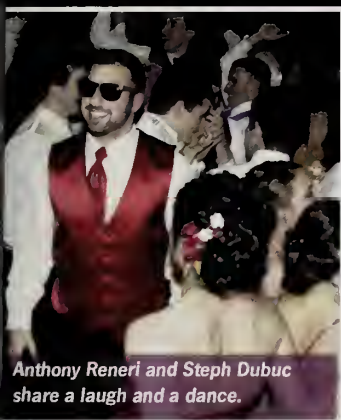

Post and Andrew enjoy a moment on dance floor together as Prom Court nominees.

Two friends jump simultaneously to the beat of the music. They seem to be having a lot of fun.

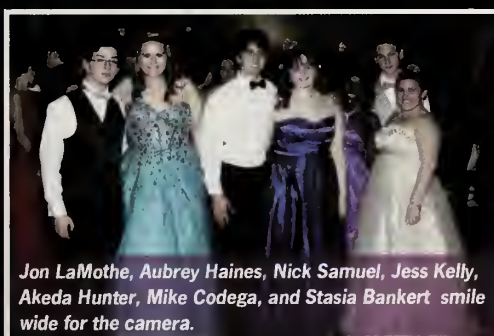

These friends stop dancing for a moment to smile wide for the camera. They all look great in their formal attire.

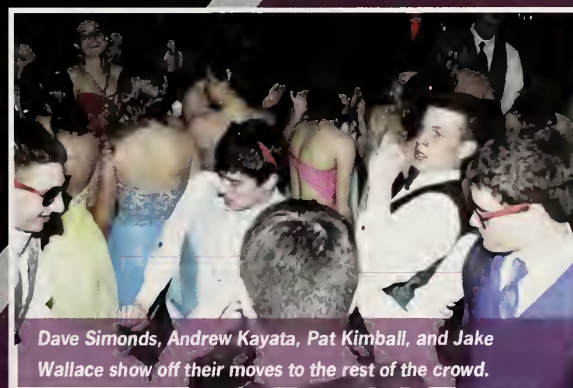

Anthony Reneri and Steph Dubuc share a laugh and a dance.

Chris Crawley hands Nikki Cretien her flower as they are called up for Prom Court.

Dave Simonds, Andrew Kayata, Pat Kimball, and Jake Wallace show off their moves to the rest of the crowd.

Josh Mendonca and Matt Leary smile while after being honored in the Prom Court.

These friends show everybody that they know to dance and can dance to any beat.

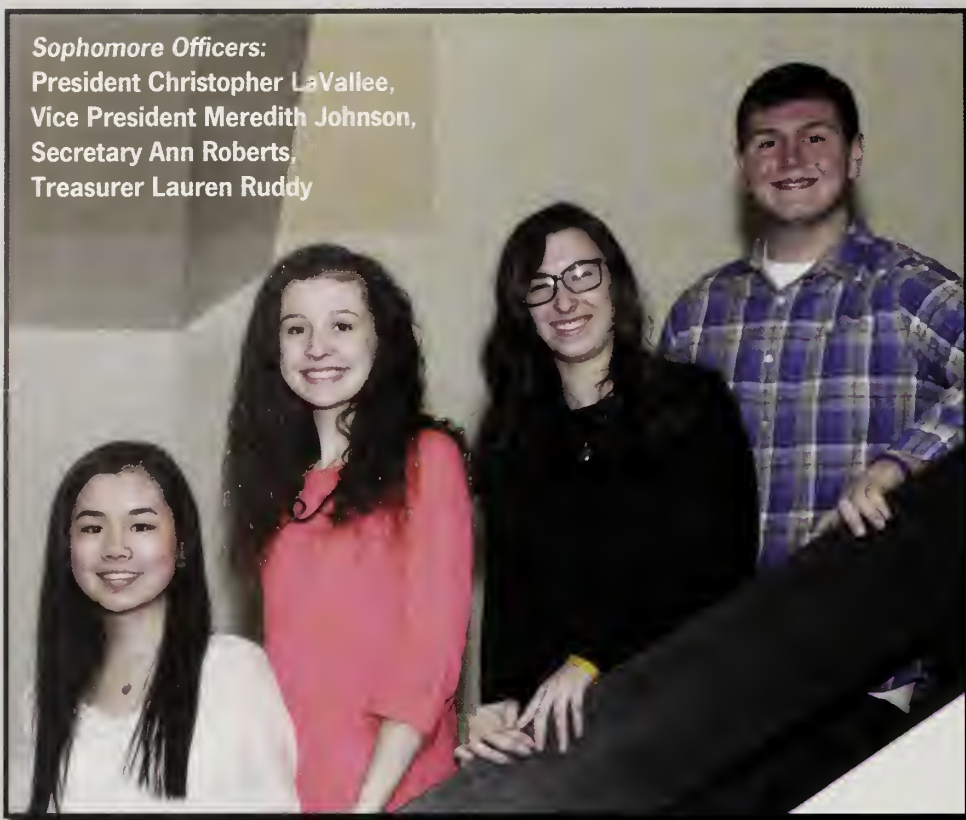

These friends took a break from dancing to pose for the camera.

Sophomores

Sophomore Officers:

President Christopher LaVallee,
Vice President Meredith Johnson,
Secretary Ann Roberts,
Treasurer Lauren Ruddy

Throughout our sophomore year, the students of the class of 2016 began to find themselves both academically and socially. After surviving freshman year, we are all a little bit smarter, a little bit tougher, and a little bit closer to graduation. As sophomores, we continue to shine academically, athletically and artistically. The challenges have gotten harder, but the class of 2016 continues to thrive here at NAHS.

The Freshmen-Sophomore Social was an unforgettable night of dancing, laughing, and fun. Students arrived at the Middle School looking their best and ready to dance the night away under the twinkling lights that decorated the cafeteria. Rather than stay separated in classes, all of the students intermingled and socialized with anyone and everyone. The wide range of music included rap, pop, hip hop, and even a few slower songs. The attendees danced the night away and belted out their favorite songs with their friends. Thanks to everyone involved, this fundraising event was a huge success and a truly special night.

The NAHS freshmen class is full of pride, determination, and inspiration. It is composed of students that bring refreshing ideas and an impressive display of school spirit to the community. We came in an overall second place in homecoming week due to a combination of achievements: spirit at our pep rally, a spectacular performance in the Penny Wars, and a great amount of fundraising. Together, we have raised money for Crohn's Disease and instituted many programs to help others. Brooke Miller led a can drive for the less fortunate during the holiday season and Kayla Roy began a volunteer organization in the school. The ninth grade population is sure to have a bright future due to not only their instinct to help others, but also because of academic accomplishments. For example, Victor Cai came in first place in this year's science fair. Also, there is a widespread exhibition of talent in this class including their dance moves at the successful Freshmen/Sophomore Social as well as competing in many varsity athletics and music groups. You will be sure to hear more about the Class of 2017 and their aptitude for being erudite and amiable in the future.

Special Olympics

The 26th annual Attleboro Area Special Olympics School Day Games was one for the books. Project Unite organized and raised money to put on an amazing event. This year, we were back at Attleboro High School after four years of hosting it on our own track. Attleboro's newly renovated stadium was a great venue for the USA themed event. All the student coordinators worked tirelessly to ensure that this day went off without a hitch, so that the athletes who had trained so hard would have their time to shine. We got lucky and the rain held off until we were just about done cleaning up. Each and every volunteer, coach, and especially the athletes had a great day putting on a fun event. Thank you to everyone who volunteered from Project Unite, National Honor Society, and Best Pals and congratulations to the athletes on an incredible job at Special Olympics this year!

We Are Family...

With only three seniors this season, everyone on the team had to step up and work together to become the team we all knew we would be. Not only did we participate in many winter and summer leagues like we do every off season, we also started off the season right playing together in the Delight Tournament. This was the first time our team had ever stepped on the field together, and it was clear we had a great season ahead of us. Of course we can't forget about our new team tradition of ending the Nike summer camp. Although some of the memories include yellow pouring water and a moldy couch, beating the team (you all know who we're talking about) will always be a moment we will never forget.

As the 2013 season officially came to a close, new speakers were bought (and quickly broken), sisters were assigned, bra tags were made, and a new field formation was created. We now played with links, halfbacks, fullbacks, and forwards, but because of this team's strength, the transition was easy. Some games came easier than others but our force on the field was undeniable. It didn't take long for this team to become a family with the many team dinners, breakfasts, sleepovers, and of course the occasional Boneyard trips. The best part about this year's team was everyone's positive and determined attitudes which made this season a success in so many ways and we couldn't be more proud! We all know the team will continue to work hard and dream big in the future. Best of luck next year's captains Maggie Gallagher and Kayla Dierenzo and all of our girls! We will miss you all so much.

Rocket Men...

The 2013 football season was one that had its ups and downs. For a team with only a few returning starters, it was crucial for a young team to develop quickly. Although many people thought it would be a down year, Big Red kept a 21 year winning tradition alive by posting a 6-5 record. Those nights and mornings spent at captains' practices in addition to the extra two days of practices in the intense heat paid off, when we beat the division 1 super power, BC High 20-12 on a warm summer night at Community Field. Despite several key injuries and a tough schedule, North preserved and carved a playoff game against Walpole at Community Field. Big Red defeated the Walpole Rebels 35-7 in a memorable game for the team and program. Unfortunately, North fell to a strong Oliver Ames team, eliminating us from playoff contention. Some weeks later, the senior class would suit up for the final time. This time, we played on Community field on Thanksgiving. Despite a hard, tough game, Big Red fell to the Bombardiers. A team that faced great adversity remained tough throughout the season and the football class of 2013 could not be more proud of our team.

-The 2013 captains, Matt D'Attilio, Jack Blase, and Evan Sweeney

BIG RED

Anthony Ranieri was a defensive leader for the young Rocketeers, and will hope to have a huge impact during the 2014 season as captain.

Go Big Red...

It is safe to say that the 2013 fall cheerleading team had something truly special, not only performing on the field in the immense presence of dedication to the sport we all know and love. Starting the season with young new talent and dedicated seniors this team stuck together through four long hot days of UCA cheerleading camp at Mt. Ida College and earned ourselves the honorable title of "Camp Champs". Certainly setting the bar high for the exciting fall season. Double sessions and long practices soon followed. Inexperience turned into maturity and diversity and then grew into strength. Each and every teammate stepped up and showed what North Attleborough cheerleading is truly about. Between a fantastic outcome of our annual fall fashion show, rallies and both home and away football games, this team formed into what the four seniors were striving for. A sisterhood consisting of passion and self motivation to always be the best. We could not thank our teammates enough for always pushing the limits and truly becoming our family. Cheering has become one of the biggest parts of our high school careers and we will miss the Friday night games under the lights at Community field. Big Red cheer will always be in our hearts along with the bond of the 14 sisters and our amazing coach Patti Johnson that made our senior year of high school worth something. Thank you for such an amazing season and good luck to next years captains Syd Griswold and Jaz Bonenfant.

Run For Your Life...

The 2013 NAHS Girls Cross-Country team is one that will go down in history, not just for the talent it displayed but also for the memories it made. Between Twitter wars, Sue Heck impersonations, interpretive dancing and our Xcsi crime-fighting team, there was never a dull moment. But our team was made of so much more than just laughter and fun. It was defined by our strength, determination, and heart. Together we endured countless workouts and long core sessions, pushing ourselves harder than we thought was possible. Through both our team victories and individual accomplishments, we proved that hard work does pay off. This season marks the beginning of a legacy (and we don't mean by trend-setting #itsarevolution). We have absolutely no doubt in the capability and potential this team has to offer, and we know we are leaving this team in good hands with the 2014 captains: Abby Ismail and Keara Chandran. We wish you all the best of luck next year and just remember, "You can fight without ever winning, but never ever win without a fight."

Running Tough...

The boys cross country team was one of the best teams this school has ever seen. The team finished the regular season 4-1 and placed third at the league championships. This years success was due to the hard work and determination people put in throughout the season. Another key to the team was depth, with juniors Teddy Nolan, Ken Fong, and Joe Collins improving from last year, as well as seniors Branden Laverdiere and Jack LaBonte. With many runners returning we expect great things out of this team next year. Teddy Nolan and Ken Fong, keep up the hard work and make us proud.

Match Play...

The golf team started yet another season at the dusty Locust Valley Golf Course. They returned to a challenging Hockomock schedule. The team was filled with new faces in matches, which consistently changed. Playing in matches became a challenge, and making the cut for matches became a hard task to achieve. Seniors Adam Lareau, Anthony Manganaro, Nick Duva, Sophomore Bryan Harris, and freshman Robbie Congdon competed in every match. Anthony Manganaro and Nick Duva were known on the team as the "Dynamic Duo" during matches and fed off each others energy to consistently come in with low scores. Adam Lareau and Robbie Congdon also played together, and usually shot low scores. Next years team has some promising golfers who can push the team to a winning season and we wish them the best of luck.

Bump, Set, Spike...

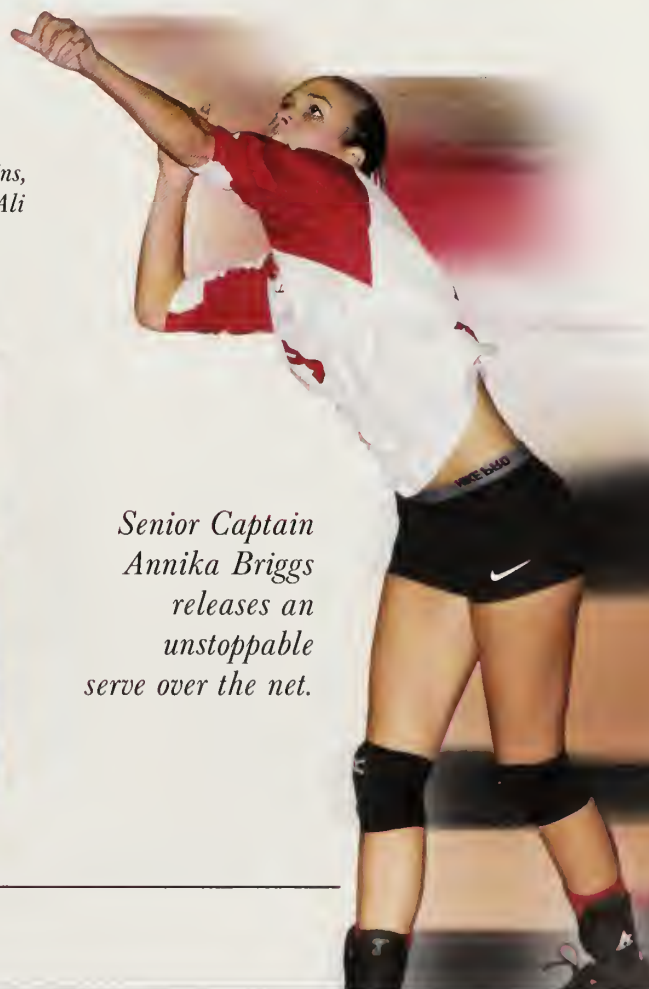

This year's "sus" team was filled with many surprises, all of them being great. We fought through a slow beginning and went out with a bang, making sure we ended Mansfield on senior night and left Franklin to shame. We then concluded our season at the banquet by finding out we are the first team at North to receive the MIAA Division 1 State Sportsmanship Award, later accepting the plaque at state finals and displaying it proudly in our school. Our "sus" team grew closer as the season went on and we couldn't be more thankful to have shared this experience with such an amazing group of girls (or men?). All of this would not have been the same without our team manager, Amy Brodbeck, who never failed to put a smile on our faces and keep the team running smoothly. Good luck next year to all the seniors in their future endeavors and we'll never forget the memories we've created over the past four years. We wouldn't have wanted it any other way and we can't wait to come back and watch you ladies kill it on the court next year, and best of luck to your 2014 captains Melissa Beaupre and Kara Kummer!

We could not be more proud of our 2013 regular season with a record of 11-3-4. Even after losing 11 seniors, we came out on fire and beat Canton for the first time in seven years. The team chemistry and dedication to improve each day which comes so rarely, was demonstrated by this team during every practice and every game. Later in the season, we had a huge win over Foxboro, one of our biggest rivals, with a 1-0 victory. We kept the streak alive winning the biggest game of the season, the Blue Red Cup, and kept the golden cup home. The team returned to the quarter finals this year for the second time in the history of the soccer program, and only had three losses, the least amount ever in school history. This was a record breaking season on the field, and we shocked the Hock with our aggressive play and our large capacity of talent.

This season was one to be remembered as we formed a sisterhood and truly treated each other like family. There was a special bond formed by this team that will remain inseparable, and the nine seniors are going to miss it more than anything. Thank you to all who contributed to this season and we are forever grateful for the passion and the will to compete that everyone brought to this year's team. We are confident that you are in great hands next year with the 2014 captains Courtney Hewitt and Marissa Moore. We love you girls and we can't wait to see you tear it up on the field next year and continue this phenomenal legacy.

A Memorable Journey...

The 2013 season was not the most successful record wise. Our record only reflected all the hard work we put in throughout the summer during early morning captains practices and summer league games. We entered tryouts in the best shape of our lives and determined to prove people wrong. Our first game was a victory, but unfortunately it would be our last. The rest of the season consisted of heartbreaking one-goal defeats. However, in perhaps our biggest game of the season against the rivals Attleboro in the annual Coach & Garner Cup, we played our last game of the season and held a great Attleboro team scoreless to a 0-0 draw. We then proceeded to beat them in penalty kicks 4-3 to retain the Cup for the fourth year in a row. On our Senior Night, we dominated play and earned a tie against a very talented Mansfield team, which proved we were much better than our record. This year we were a junior heavy team with little varsity experience. But with this and emergence of talented underclassmen, I believe the team will head back into the right direction next season. The 2013 team was definitely one of the most fun and hardworking teams and we will always be remembered for that. I wish next years captains Jacob Crear and Stephen Casson the best of luck and prove to the hock what Big Red soccer is about. Ubuntu.

Stay Low...

Defending Hockomock Champions, we had big shoes to fill and many teams out for revenge. The return of four seniors, Jill, Ali, Julie and Jenny, and two juniors, seemed to be the perfect combination for yet again another Hock Championship. The underclassmen added great depth to our bench, and each player had a major contributing factor to this team's success. Our chemistry on the court was matched by our love and laughter for each other off the court as well. Our love for food transpired into a team outing to Wright's Chicken Farm, and our sister dress up day proved to be a big success, and an area for many great laughs. This memorable season included close games, blowouts, and huge wins over big time rivals Franklin and Mansfield. Many people thought the Hock was down this year, but it wasn't. North Attleboro was just a force to be reckoned with. We successfully won the Hockomock League, and clinched a playoff birth as a four seed. Aside from all of our seasons' successes, this team grew in more ways than one. Everyone got better as the season went on and true leadership was presented from more people than just the seniors. We want to thank you girls for such an amazing year and good luck to next year's captains, Danielle Perron and Melissa Beaupre. Make us proud next year, let's three-peat that Hock championship.

A Bright Future...

The basketball squad had an interesting year.
 We may not have been a team that everyone would fear,
 But we worked hard, and stayed positive and still, we had fun.
 No one gave up, not til the season was done.
 With Coach Mulkerrins at our lead, always giving his best
 He always supported the team, and we didn't expect anything less.
 Now for the team, oh what an attractive squad,
 We did everything we could, to make that crowd applaud.
 We started with Benny, who was always on time,
 He would break down the D, and finish with a dime.
 Then there was Vin, cooking soup and hitting threes,
 Dmo cracking a joke, while his jersey was filled with cheese.
 Then there was Liam, whose spirits could never be sunk,
 Always saying at practice "I swear I can dunk."
 There was captain JB, always picking up the slack,
 Unless he was sidelined, with that 60 year old back.
 Now for the juniors, starting with CC, with as much skill as he has,
 You would never think that he gets pumped up by listening to smooth jazz.
 Now on to Ridge, probably had the best overall skill,
 But you could always see coach on his case, about messing up another drill.
 On to the Big 3, those talented freshman, who despite their age, never appeared shaky,
 Starting with Brent, that skilled point guard, who wasn't fazed
 when Shaq called him a baby.
 Then there was Tommy who was not as fast as a jet,
 But you could always be sure that his jersey would be filled with sweat.
 Last but not least, Johnny, with that freshman flare,
 But man do I wish that he would cut that disgusting hair.
 We thank the coaches, cheerleaders, and parents
 For supporting through times that were tough, that was very apparent.
 We couldn't get that win, maybe it was a curse,
 It just wasn't meant to be, but hey, at least we have Cerce.

Living The Dream...

The 2014 Winter Cheerleading season accomplished much more than what the photos can show. The Fall Season prepared us for what was to come in this year's Winter Season. Starting in August we trained an immense amount of hours working even harder than previous years. In January came fast, we faced many setbacks and struggled to keep up with the other teams. Under all this pressure we accepted the challenge and strived to reach our goal as a team. The four seniors could not be more proud of the strength and determination our 11 sisters presented. You will make us honored to leave this team with confidence that we did our job because of the freshman's quick learning, the sophomore's incredible skill and the senior's leadership. Looking back the results may not be what we had hoped for but we gained so much more. We expect you to take North Cheerleading Sisterhood with you forever and the many lessons that come with it. A special thank you to our amazing coach Patti Johnson for shaping us into the young adults we are today. Your patience and dedication to this team cannot be thanked enough and what you've taught us, we will take into the real world. We are incredibly honored to be a part of North Cheerleading, Patti's Army and everything that comes with it! Best of luck to the 2015 cheer team and all the amazing things you girls will accomplish. We will love our sisters forever and know the Big Red gym will always be home.

Boys Swim -

The 2013-2014 season for the boys swimming team was a great one. The guys added onto their record from the past year with 4 wins and 4 losses, and placed 6th in the Hockomock League Championship meet. Although losing multiple high-performing seniors the previous year, the team was unfazed and strove to exceed expectations. Boys from all grades participated in the team's success, including freshman Victor Cai, future captain Dan Chen, and sophomore Dan Adler. Coach Thornton never doubted the strength of his team and with the help of two assistant coaches, Courtney Crockett and Conor Nugent, he was able to lead the team to an excellent season.

Girls Swim-

The hard work and determination of our swimmers allowed the girl's swim team to exceed all hopes this season. Every girl contributed her share- aiding us through our second undefeated season in a row. This success did not come easily. We faced tough teams such as Franklin and Mansfield, where our depth helped us prevail and gave us our victories. Going into the Hockomock League meet, we knew we were Kelley Rex Champions, but winning this meet would be no easy feat. Every point counted and every swimmer performed to their absolute best. With key finishes in the relays, we pulled through and ended up on top. This year marks our eighth straight year as Hockomock League Meet Champions. Later in the season, six swimmers continued on to Sectionals at Wellesley College and then onto States at MIT. With so few girls, North had a strong showing nonetheless. As Captains, we could not be prouder of everyone's performance this year. Congratulations and good luck next year to Captains Aidan Devers and Andie Rigas!

Catch Me If You Can...

The 2013-2014 North Girls Track team exemplified what it takes to be a successful team. Faced with multiple difficulties, including a record-setting number of meets crammed into a single week, a bus that was over on time, and the Reggie Lewis track, we showed off our determination and resilience by overcoming every obstacle we encountered. As the season progressed, our identity as a strong, talented team began to emerge. Despite a pair of losses to Mansfield and P, we won the majority of our dual meets, one of the most competitive leagues in the state. As our focus turned toward big championship meets, we saw success as twelve girls placed at Hocks, ten girls state-qualified, and two school records were broken.

But this season will not just be remembered for its records. What will forever remain in our hearts is the people we were surrounded by and the memories we made: singing Christmas carols, talking in British accents, and teasing Mr. Holster about his hour-long conversations. We were more than a team; we were a family, and our legacy will last a lifetime. We can't wait to see where it will go next year in the hands of captains Stephanie Dubuc, Marissa Moore, and Allison Post. We are beyond proud of this team's accomplishments, and we wish you all the best of luck next year!

Run away...

It was a great year for this year's Winter Track team. We were lead in points by Jake McKinnon and Nathan Adeyemi, both of whom regularly scored in multiple events. Our team, full of experience, did very well as we competed and improved through every meet. This is shown through the team's success. We ended the dual meet season with a 4-1 record, earning second in the Kelly-Rex Division. We continued on to the Hockomock League championship where we powered byoughton for second place in our twelve team league. At the Division III State championships, we finished fourth overall, likely just an unfortunate stomach bug shy of competing for first. Throughout the season we had many outstanding performances. Two school records were broken. The Distance Medley Relay record was broken by Mike Kelleher, Ryan Croke, Jake McKinnon, and Ian Flanagan and the Long Jump Relay record was broken by Jake McKinnon, Nathan Adeyemi, and Jesse Li. We also set the unofficial record for most handsome team in history. This year's seniors leave a team with a lot of potential in coming years and expect to come back to see great things. We are confident that next year's captains Teddy Nolan, Andrew Hanwell, and Nathan Adeyemi will help them reach this potential.

"The Creed"

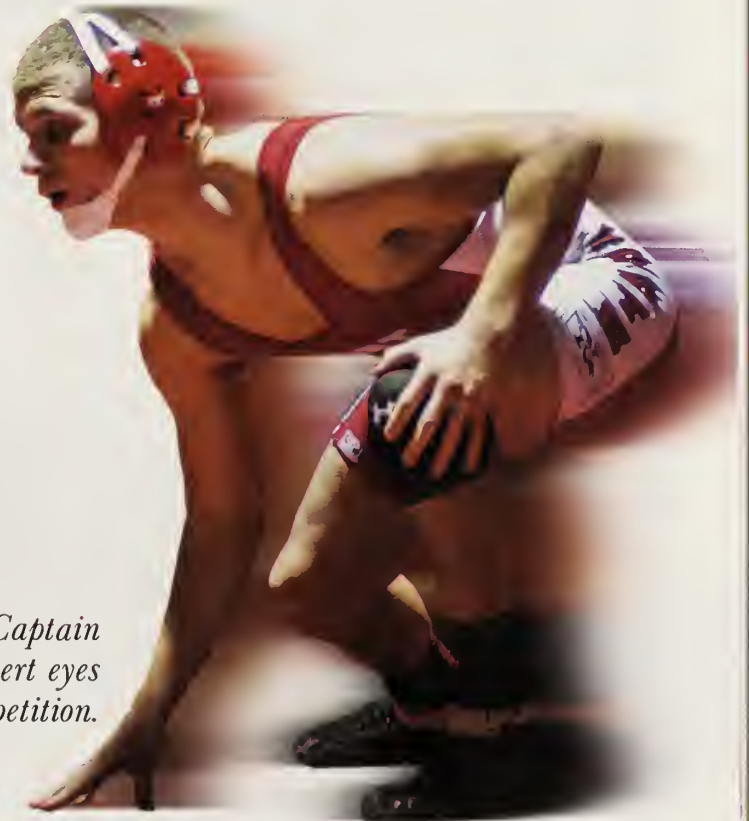

was one of those seasons you come into and you just know it is going to be a blast. This team truly felt like a family to everyone. We started the season by going on an eight dual meet win streak before our first loss to the top team in the state, St. Ignace Prep, losing by one match. Even with our first loss we knew it was going to be a good season. We went right back to work and went on a seven dual meet streak before running into the second ranked team in the state, Springfield Central where we were defeated by just one match. After the loss, we had no time to look back and reflect on it because next, was our senior night against rival Franklin at home. Franklin was ranked fourth in the state while we were ranked third. We trained hard but it was not our night and we lost to another top competitor and lost the Hockomock title. Although we lost the Hockomock title, we still fought until the end of the season and we won another Division 2 Sectional title. After Sectionals, two stars began to emerge starting with Austin Renzi becoming our first state champion since 2008. Then the following week, Evan Packert decided to dig even deeper into history as he became the first All-State finalist since 1994. We finished the season at 24-4 as a team.

We not only got the most wins in a season for our team, but we were able to get the most wins in a season for any sport team in the schools history. This was without a doubt a very successful season, which could not have been done with any family better than ours.

The Boys Are Back

Everything on this year's squad was great. The team dynamic to the flow. The season started rough, beginning slow by picking up points that would haunt later in the season. Our talented forwards helped create the offensive. The defense was needed to help a young defenseman stay on their feet. The forwards even had to bite the bullet and move down the bench to play a season which included the likes of Marshall Blackman, Brandon Poillucci, Ryan Ma. Freshman forward Eric Clements used his size and predictable shot to become an offensive presence throughout the season. The team ended the regular season winning six of their last eight games to clinch a playoff berth for the third consecutive year. The team hit the 20 point plateau in the last game of the season, in a thriller against King Philip winning 6-2. Big Red went into the MIAA tournament knowing that facing the number three seeded Medway would be a battle. We played Medway to a 1-1 tie through three periods but lost a heartbreaker in overtime. As captains we could not be more proud of our team and all we accomplished this year together. We will all the boys the best next year and are hoping for another tournament berth!

First Ever Cup Champs...

The 2014 Softball Season is one that none will forget. With a huge senior class of nine graduating, we knew we would have to work harder than ever before. The start of the season was a shock for everyone. Starting off 10-0, we qualified for the tournament with extra inning wins over rivals Taunton and Milford. We knew we had to keep fighting when the game got late because that was when we could do our best work. One of our biggest games this year was our first win against KP in eleven years. We started off the game knowing we had a shot to beat them, and we made it clear early that we weren't going to back down. Captain Marissa Gifford had a two-out, two-strike single in the fourth inning that scored the first two runs of the game and McKenzie Sherman had a hit that took their starting pitcher out of the game. Our offense kept it going and kept with our strong defense to beat KP away and win the game 7-2. Another great win was our second game against Attleboro when we fought for the first Blue-Red Cup in the longtime rivalry between Attleboro and North Attleboro. Our offense and defense came together for a 6-2 victory and we made sure we got to keep the Cup at home. Our 15-3 season proved hard work will get the job done. Everyone supported each other on and off the field even when they weren't in a starting position. We had many underclassmen step up to the plate and get the job done, proving they could be just as good as upperclassmen prior to them. Although we had a few disappointing losses, we battled to the end and fought our hardest showing we would never give in. We are proud to say everyone was a part in our success this year and we hope next year is even better. Best of luck to everyone, we couldn't have asked for a better team to play on.

Memories Were Made

The 2014 North Attleboro University baseball team played with heart, integrity, and mental toughness. We hoped to build on the experience of the previous season and win the Rockomock league. We started off 8-0 beating out tough teams like Oliver Ames, Stoughton, and Taunton. We peaked as the seventh best team in the state before going 3-10 in the second half of the seasonal. Thankfully, we were able to get our tenth win against Mansfield in a close game to secure a home game in the playoffs. We were a better team than our record represented. Some of our favorite high school memories were made playing baseball at community field. Thank you to our teammates, coaches, fans, and parents. Good luck to next year's captains Dylan Grzenda and Mark Ventola. GO BIG RED!

Setting Records...

Although we had a slow start to the season, we finished with a record of 8-10, which is the best record North girls lacrosse has ever had! It took some time for us to click, but we were extremely strong once we did. During our Milford game we scored 20 goals for the first time ever. Then, midway through the season we beat Oliver Ames for the first time in a few years. After all our long practices, we finally developed into a skilled team and family. As much as we are going to miss this season, we can't wait to watch next year's team make tournament! We are so proud of this team and season. Good luck to next year's captains Courtney Barrett and Marissa Moore! NALAX!

Promising Season

The 2014 season for the boys lacrosse team was a season of firsts under the coaching of Mr. Young, Mr. Ames, and Mr. Hensey. We came into the season with a lot of promising varsity players and a handful of promising freshman eager to assert themselves as assets on the team. We ended up the regular season with huge wins against perennial powerhouses Foxboro and Franklin. This was our first time beating either team in the program's history. This explosive start to the season propelled us to a 12 and 6 regular season record.

The year was full of ups and downs. There was the heart wrenching overtime loss to Foxboro offset by the sweet taste of beating our rival Mansfield at our own field dubbed "The Garden". We had a momentous win against Oliver Ames to clinch a playoff berth for the second time in the program's history. To get pumped for these big games, we would play games at practice like class was where the juniors dominated and "Tunnel of Death".

Our first game of the playoffs was against one of our biggest rivals, Foxboro. We were confident going into the game because we soundly beat them at the beginning of the year. We came to play and walked out of "The Garden" with an overpowering 20-12 victory. We then had to face a very good Medfield team for the second year in a row during the playoffs. Although we didn't come away with a win, we were still happy with the most successful season to date. We wish the team luck in the future and hope that you guys keep improving and become one of the perennial powerhouses in the Hockomock League.

Hockomock Champs Rally Again...

The 2014 Girls Tennis season is surely one to remember. As we approached the season with five less starting varsity players, we knew we faced some challenges. However, we exceeded all expectations and secured a strong 19-1 season. Our team also grew as we had a large number of freshmen that tried out. We started our season off right as we defeated Canton.

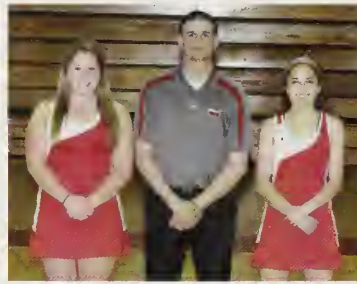

With all the hard work that goes into making a successful season, we also had a lot of fun with our teammates. We grew close on our long bus ride conversations, pasta dinners, cookouts, and forecourt practices. We jokingly called ourselves "WeDemBoyz."

A group of us even surprised Mr. Burgess at his awards ceremony for being named the MIAA Girls Tennis Coach of the Year for 2014. In the last game of the regular season, we beat Bishop Feehan at Forecourt. With all the support from our families, friends, teammates and coach, we were named Hockomock League Champions and we could not be more proud of our team. The varsity players really stepped up their game to prove that we were just as good as or even better than last year. We headed into the playoffs as a two seed. Thank you to everyone who made this season incredible and we wish you the best of luck next year!

Love, your captains,

Stellar Performances by Players

The Boys Tennis team entered the 2014 season with as much excitement as uncertainties. Except for Anthony Rinaldi at first singles, the entire lineup had to be revamped after losing three seniors from last year. Junior Kumail Alikhan stepped up to claim the second singles spot and Sophomore Mitchell Dyer laid claim to the third singles spot. Senior Captains Connor Roberts and Siddarth Senthilkumaran occupied the first doubles spot, while Sophomores Jeffrey Yao and Ben Scott, and Freshman Zac Pfeffer were in the mix for the second doubles spot. The singles players produced stellar performances while the two doubles teams ground out some important victories in close 3-2 matches against Attleboro, King Phillip, and Franklin. The team certainly got its dose of revenge after beating a strong King Phillip side, erasing the memories of three losses to them last year.

The Hockomock League title was in our grasp until the last two weeks of the season when we had to play the leaders Mansfield two times in the space of one week. But they played some remarkable tennis and we were proud to have finished second in a very strong league. We had to play King Phillip in the playoffs for the second year in a row. We put last year's loss behind us and with the help of a stunning display by the singles players, we managed to edge them 3-2 and advance to the quarterfinals to play Barnstable. After bowing out to perennial state championship contenders Barnstable, the team was more hopeful than disappointed. With many young faces in the team, a foundation had been laid for a successful future. The lessons of perseverance and an attitude of not giving up until the end will prove instrumental in future seasons.

North Attleboro track has been a competitive team in the hockomock league as well as in the state. This year is no different. The Rocketeers placed 2nd in the Kelly Rex during the final meet season as well as 2nd at the hockomock Championship Meet. We also placed 3rd at the D2 championships. From the track to the field this team covered all the bases. The senior class led by example and gave the underclassmen a goal to chase, whether it be Jake McKinnon in the 400 hurdles, and Jt Kleczkowski in the javelin, or

Will Reissfelder in the discus and shot put, the seniors truly set the time for the team. However, the youth on this team presents a bright future ahead in the next couple of years, and with next years captains Nathan Adeyemi, Andrew Hanwell, Teddy Nolan the sky is the limit. Congrats, athletes!

The Fisher Kelley Banquet is an annual celebration of our senior athletes. This year it was held at the Attleboro Elks. Mr. Burgess had the history of the banquet, now in its 93rd year. The keynote speaker was Mr. Jack Fitzgibbons, former Red Rocketeer himself. His message was clear that we would always remember the lessons learned through North Attleborough athletics, and the friends we made here. Each athlete was recognized for their dedication to their sports, and some were recognized with special awards, such as scholar athletes and sportsmanship awards. The big awards of the night, the Dr. DeYoung and Dr. Grant awards, went to Colin Quinn and Emily Chandran, respectively. It was a fun night for all involved, not to mention the great food. Everyone's parents were extremely proud of their student-athletes, and everyone took home a beautiful plaque with their name and sports written on it. Overall, it was a great night celebrating our athletic achievements as a class.

The homecoming rally embodies class pride and school spirit. After a long week of homecoming festivities—penny wars and themed days—all of the classes came together in the Kenneth Pickering Gymnasium for a rowdy afternoon. In the spirit of friendly competition, everyone sported their class colors, the seniors in red, the juniors in blue, the sophomores in green, and the freshmen in yellow. Each class went head to head in tug-of-war, the spirit contest, and musical chairs with the help of elected teachers. The seniors dominated as the class officers won tug-of-war; the class cheered the loudest; and Mrs. Scorpio beat out the other teachers in musical chairs. We'll always look back on this rally and remember the excitement as everyone yelled "GO BIG RED!"

Thanksgiving Rally

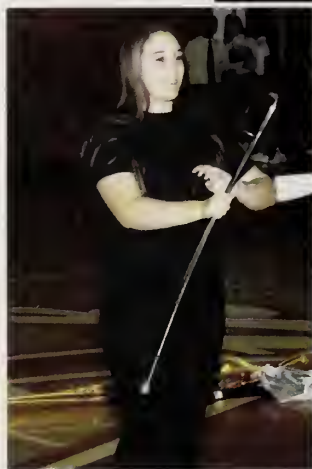

GO BIG RED!

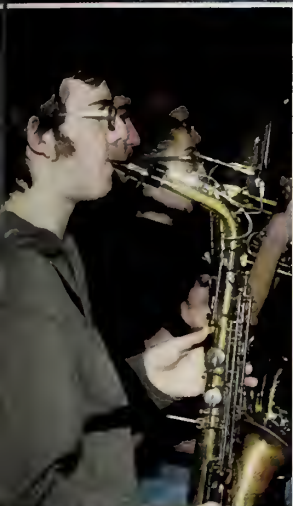

By Kelly O'Neill & Julia Caudle

With all the red and white at the Thanksgiving Rally, it was truly a special time for NAHS to come together with school spirit before the big Thanksgiving Day game. The whole school watched the senior football players and cheerleaders project a slide show with cute baby pictures and actions shots. We can't thank Mr. Rizzo, Mr. Kummer, and Mr. Holcomb for always making this rally a great production. The fall sports captains competed in a game of musical chairs with a win by Matt D'Attilio. The band rocked the gymnasium, while Mr. Kummer exhilarated the crowd and got the football players anticipated for the big game. An honorary alumni joined us for this rally and Mr. Holcomb did a great job hosting. Although the Red Rocketeers lost on the Thanksgiving Day game 19-34, we have no doubt that we will get Hilda back home next year.

A Game to Remember

By Marissa Gifford

The weather was perfect on the morning of October 20th in anticipation for a great game. Both teams arrived at the high school nervous and excited for the upcoming game. It was a time to show talent, class pride, and all the hard work leading up to that day. Both teams were motivated and determined to win. The seniors wanted revenge for their close loss in the previous year and the juniors were ready to prove themselves. The game started slow, but gained speed quickly. The juniors scored the first touchdown and took the upper hand. The seniors answered by returning a kickoff and getting the 2 point conversion. But the lead for the seniors would not last long as the juniors battled and scored two more times as the seniors could not find the juniors' flags. A safety by the seniors seemed to give them momentum and a hope of coming back. This hope did not last long as the juniors stopped the senior defense time and time again. A questionable and costly penalty late in the game deflated the seniors' hope of coming back as it took away a touchdown and their momentum. The final score was 26-16 juniors in a hard fought battle by both sides. Although the score was not in the seniors' favor, they worked well together, played tough, and had a great time! Congrats Juniors and good luck next year.

Trivia Bowl

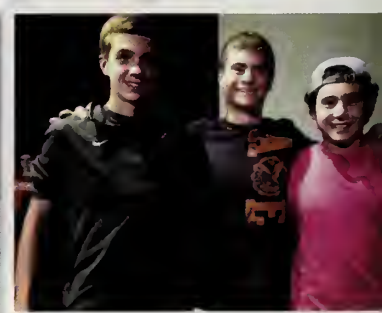

A fun time!

By Julia Caudle

This year, NAHS welcomed its first trivia bowl, organized by the junior class. With help from Ms. Hanley, Ms. McDavitt, and of course, announcer, Mr. Herber, it was a great night, full of friendly competition and laughter. In the end, a team of four juniors emerged as the victors.

The victors, Rachel Faris, Rachel Sadler, Erik Seman, and Eric Wuesthoff show off their prize, Dunkin' gift.

Alex Blase Wiffleball Tournament

By Jack Blase

Each year since 2009, during May, the town gathers at Mason Field for the Alex Blase Memorial Wiffleball Tournament. Here, teams of 5-7 players compete in wiffleball games throughout the day. The teams are split into age groups to keep the level of competition fun and balanced. One fun part of the day is seeing all of the crazy uniforms that the teams put together, and each year the team with the most creative uniforms win an award. After the games are all finished, there is a large cookout and party at the Elks. Where, there is great food and amazing music. All the money that is donated and earned throughout the day is placed into the Alex Blasé Scholarship Fund.

National Honor Society

Scholarship, Leadership, and Service

By Emily Elia
Publicist

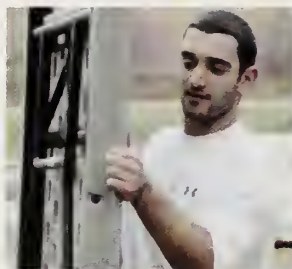

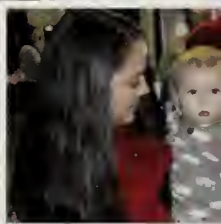

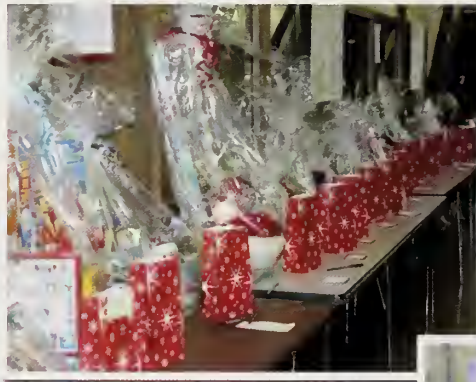

The National Honor Society is an organization that promotes academic achievement, involvement in our school, a sense of leadership, and a willingness to serve the community. While we are very much an academic organization, the heart of the National Honor Society lies in its determination to help our school and our town with community service acts like tutoring fellow students and assisting in town-wide trash clean ups. Our annual Craft Fair provided opportunities for local entrepreneurs to showcase their wares and for our members to. This year, with help from local businesses and our members, our raffle table at our craft fair raised over five hundred dollars for Lenore's Pantry, which topped past fairs' totals by a long shot. At our core, we are an organization that works hard in every aspect of life.

School Council

The School is a small, core group of seniors who take pride in the school they attend. Every month, we join a group of parents and faculty in the Martin Room, along with Mr. Holcomb, to discuss any issues we have around the school. We shared ideas and come up with solutions to solve these problems in an effort to make our school even better. Mr. Holcomb then takes these ideas and implements them into daily life at the school.

Student Government Representatives

History Made

Patrick Reynolds made history Tuesday, April 1, 2014 by becoming the youngest person ever elected to the board of selectmen. Reynolds, 18, cruised to a solid victory receiving 1,151 votes, the highest of the four candidates running for two seats on the board of selectmen.

J.T. Kleczkowski and Patrick Reynolds

At student government day at the state house, Patrick Reynolds represented North Attleboro and J.T. Kleczkowski was his alternate. Patrick Reynolds was rightly chosen for this position as this April, he was elected as one of North Attleboro's town selectmen.

Young Republicans

By Patrick Reynolds

The TeenAge Republicans Club led by their Chairman Patrick Reynolds and adviser Mr. Russo took a hands-on approach to learning about the electoral process and government this year. They were very involved in the elections held during the school year, including helping to elect Rep. Shawn Dooley in the special election in Plainville and Patrick Reynolds with his campaign for North Attleboro Selectman. Club members marched in parades, held signs, knocked on doors, made phone calls, and much more.

Peer leaders is a group of motivated students interested in getting involved in the community outside of school. We hope to set an example among our peers by taking an interest in our town and giving back as much as we can. In the past years, we have been involved in community service projects such as reading or cooking for the elderly, donating food to needy families, gift wrapping, and painting the school. Participating in this group is an excellent way to have fun with friends while helping those in need.

Y-Leaders

This is a place where teens become leaders in their community! Leaders Club is designed to offer young adults the opportunity to develop leadership skills as they provide volunteer service within the YMCA and their community. Sessions and events are balanced with values discussions, peer relationship building, and programs targeted at managing all aspects of a young adults daily life. Leaders Club members participate in several social outings, including Senior Leader rally weekends that include hundreds of Leaders from all over the Northeast area. This program is extremely hands-on and is managed by an elected executive board of peers and a YMCA advisor.

Gym Leaders

The point of having leaders for gym class is not only to teach underclassmen the rules of the games, but also to set an example of sportsmanship and encourage students to enjoy physical activity. Some seniors enjoy this job so much that they sign up to be leaders for both semesters.

Best Pals

By Meghan Brandley

Best pals consists of a group of students who volunteer their time during the school to work with students with special needs. We help them learn life skills that they will need to be able to move on to the 12+ program by taking the m out into the community to work on projects that are both fun and educational. It is so rewarding to help the kids and see them grow. We participate in events such as bake sales, gift wrapping, and candy sales but our biggest event of the year is the Special Olympics. The kids train hard for months and it's really an exciting day for them! The group is lead by Mrs. Mitnik and Mr. Palmieri and it is truly an incredible program to be a part of.

Galadriel

Galadriel is North High's literary and art magazine. Each May for over forty years, the annual edition of Galadriel has been published and sold, cheaply and in full color, to students interested in what other students are capable of creating. Galadriel showcases the best poems, short stories, drawings, paintings, sketches, lyrics, sculptures, and photographs which are created by the student body and submitted to us throughout the year. The staff works to solicit and exhibit a balance of the talent, imagination, and creativity that is constantly coming to fruition at this school, though sometimes behind closed doors. Open its pages and walk into the side of NAHS you've never seen before.

Science Lab Renovation Project

BY AMY DeMELIA

A $6 million science lab renovation project the high school is complete. The project, half of which was funded through the Massachusetts School Building Authority, is the first major renovation to the high school since it opened its doors in 1973. Thanks to the project, students will have access to 12 new state-of-the-art science labs. In addition, 12 other classrooms were also renovated and fitted with new technology as part of the project. The renovation project during the summer was possible thanks to the leadership provided by the district's building and grounds director Kyle Kummer, hard work from the construction crews and support from the custodial staff.

Music Council

By Andrew Forte

The Music Council is the student government body of the NAHS Music Department. It consists of elected student representatives from the music department, chiefly from the concert band and concert choir. The group meets every two weeks to accomplish four goals: to promote school-wide awareness and support of the music department's activities; to act as role models of committed musicianship and constructive social interaction; to enable departmental cohesion through social events outside of ensembles; and to enable further musical activity through fundraising.

CLUBS & ACTIVITIES

Theatre Company

By Daniel Kiely

The theatre of NAHS is home to many students with a passion for performance and technical work. Every member is encouraged to grow both in their theatrical skill and social involvement. The NAHS theatre company values the curtainpuller just as much as the lead actor, an attitude which shows in its fantastic performances. This year's group has lived up to its history of growth in a mature and impressive manner under the guidance of director Ms. Forsgard.

International Thespian Society

By Daniel Kiely

The International Thespian Society is an honor society recognizing excellence in acting and technical theatre. Induction requires 100 hours split between two major aspects of the theatrical experience. Thespians are held to the highest caliber of acting and technical behavior. Members of the International Thespian Society function as role models inside and outside the theatre, requiring an active role in at least two of the three yearly shows.

Fall Play

This years production was the uproariously funny comedy "Noises Off," by Michael Frayn under the direction of Lisa Forsgard. The play follows the disjointed acting company as it progresses on its 12-week tour through Britain, documenting each new affair and every argument that breaks out among the troupe. Actions both on and offstage soon become a farcical mess as the actors attempt to preserve the show while dealing with their strained relationships behind the scenes.

CLUBS & ACTIVITIES

Mock Accident

North Attleboro High School Juniors and Seniors were shown the deadly consequences of drinking and driving on this hot September day. The North Attleboro Fire and Police Departments, as well as the Funeral Home and EMS services and the NAHS Theatre company all voluntarily put on a demonstration to show the process of dealing with a fatal O.U.I car crash. After the demonstration, students went inside to the gymnasium for a powerpoint and lecture on drinking and driving.

Mock Party

The mock party was a performance put on by the NAHS Theatre Company with the help of the North Attleborough Police and EMTs. The mock party shows sophomores and freshmen the perils of what is intended to be a fun, harmless party. It provides an example of the legal, moral, and mortal dangers of underage alcohol consumption and drug usage.

NAHS Awards Assembly

On May 15th, NAHS celebrated the school's accomplishments. Led by National Honor Society president, Emily Chandran, the Awards Assembly recognizes students for their achievements in every academic discipline and includes special distinctions, such as the Harvard Book, the Bausch and Lomb scholarship, and a scholarship to the University of Rochester. It's a day to recognize how talented and dedicated the students of North Attleborough High School are.

Junior Rachel Faris is one of twelve students nationwide, and the first NAHS student, to earn a scholarship trip to Spain this summer.

Superintendent Cullen and National Honor Society president Emily Chandran welcome students into the assembly.

Jason Correia wins the first Laurie Blake award for creative writing.

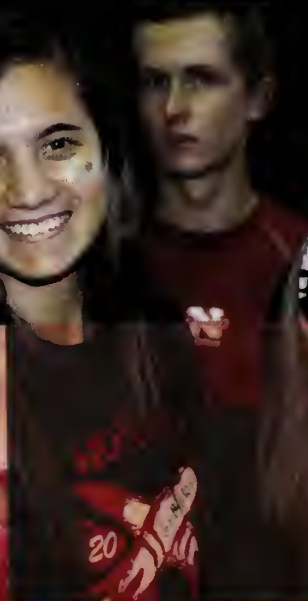

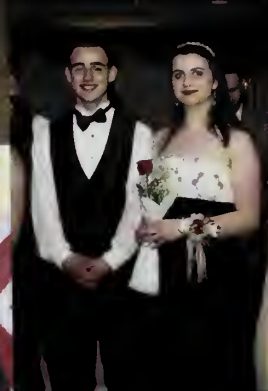

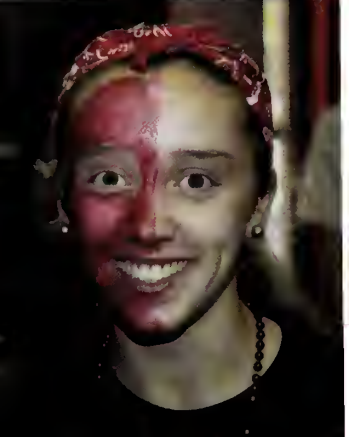

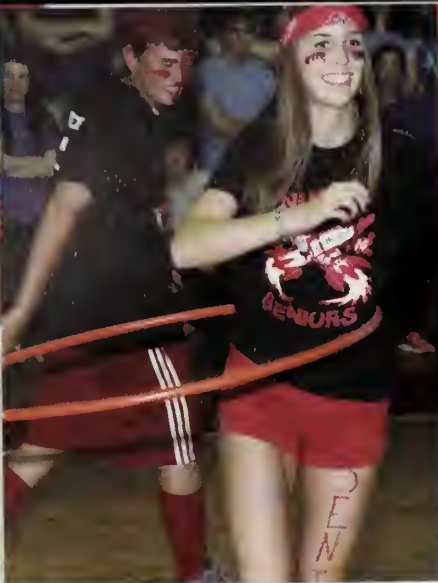

Valedictorian Daniel Colvin and Salutatorian Catherine Roukhadze add a few more awards to their well earned collection.

These students showed their Spanish abilities and ranked nationally on the 2014 National Spanish Exam.

Mr. NAHS

This year's Mr. NAHS show, hosted by Jill Costello and Kelly O'Neill, was held on April 17, 2014. The eight contestants first showed off their amazing dance moves in the opening act, thanks to their choreographers Julia Votta and Cirsten Cornetta. After the dance, each contestant went through a Q&A session while modeling their formal wear, beach wear, and hobby wear. Following this session, each boy performed their own individual acts. Jill and Kelly also continuously read off many tweets throughout the night to keep the crowd entertained. At intermission the NAHS improv group put on their own great show! JT Kleczkowski took home the 2014 Mr. NAHS crown after his act, "Evolution of Dance" stole the show. Mr. NAHS this year was a huge success thanks to all the class officers, advisors and many volunteers.

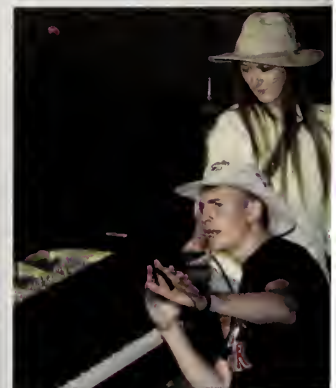

Kelly O'Neill and Jill Costello read off the many tweets students sent in as they hosted this year's event!

Mango made a convincing Anna from Frozen during his lip syncing skit!

Cirsten Cornetta and Anthony Manganaro head out on stage in their beach wear.

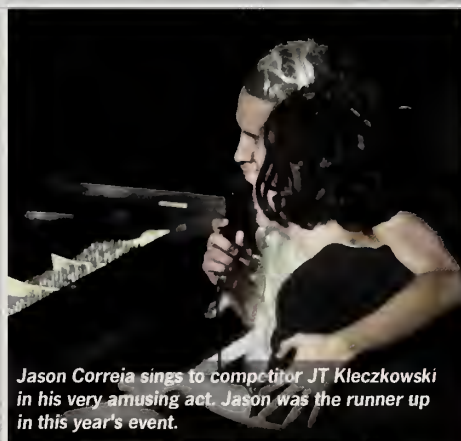

Senior Activities

Jonny Cummings performs his "Interpretive Eating" skit alongside Jason Correia and Connor Mastropoli (elephant).

Senior Prom

For the last time on May 10th the Class of 2014 got all dolled up for the Senior Prom. Everyone looked stunning in their gorgeous dresses and elegant tuxes as they took over Quidnessett Country Club. As they entered the ballroom, tables were decorated with a beach theme, named after beaches along the East Coast and each table featuring an assortment of live gold fish. Quidnessett outdid themselves by cooking up a delicious meal of both fillet mignon and chicken franchise. As our DJ began to play the music, we all danced until our feet grew numb. While the last song played and we danced to the final note, we came to realize that high school was slowly coming to end. We have learned to appreciate these memorable moments and it's these experiences that we will cherish as a class forever... even if we do end up in cities that are miles apart. We had known that it was our last prom and we certainly had made the most of it!

-Evan Sweeney

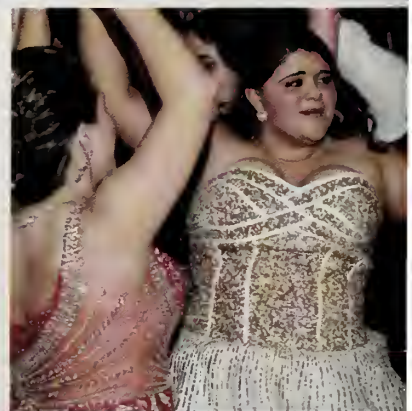

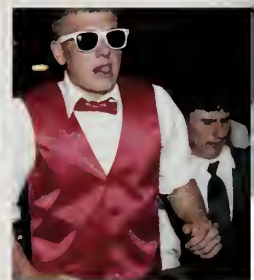

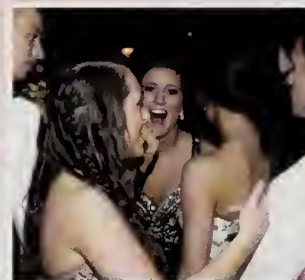

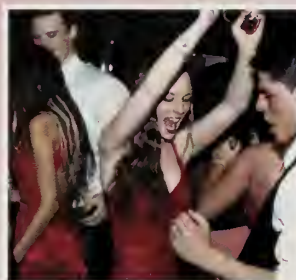

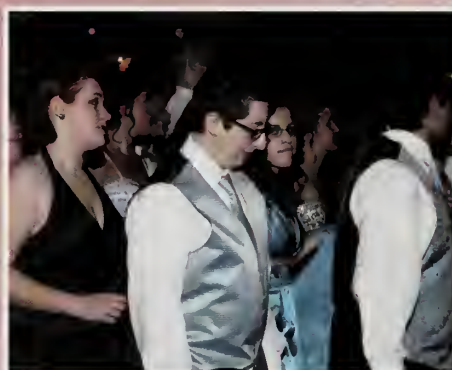

Class President Colin Quinn thanked the class advisors and all the chaperons who gave up their Saturday night to make senior prom so much fun.

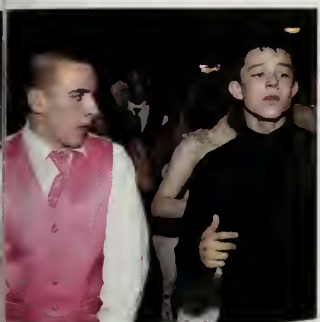

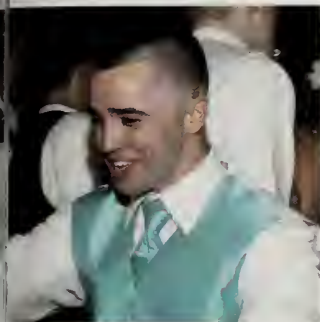

Marissa Gifford, Meg Colleran, Julie Johnson, and Emily Cerrone had a blast dancing to all the music.

It was a night to remember for Chelsea Clark and Austin Dywer as they share a dance.

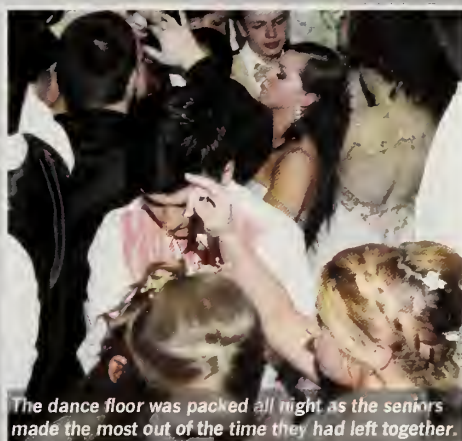

Senior Activities

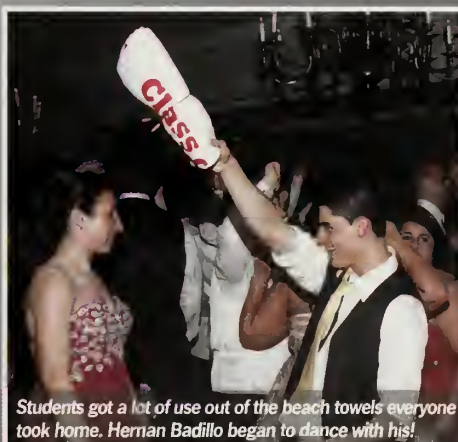

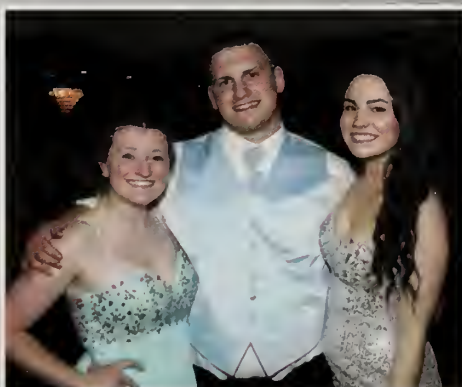

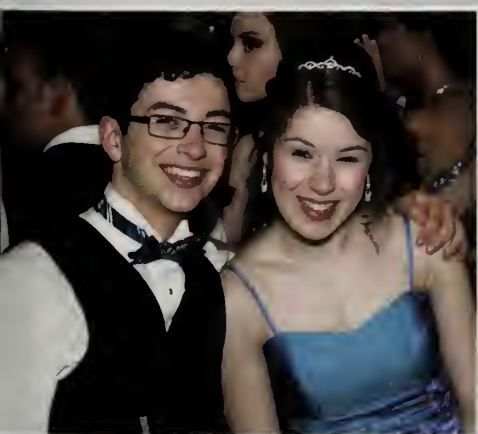

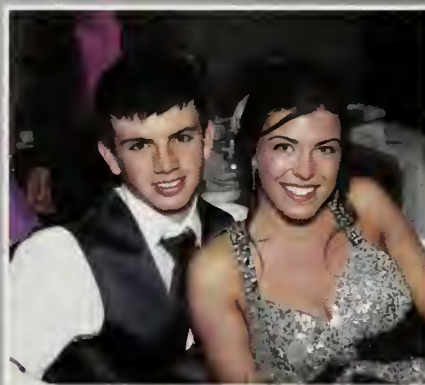

This year the seniors elected Becky McBride, Ben Gingras, Kristina Harding, Chris Hunter, Emily Marceau, Connor Mastropoli, Julia Caudle, and Dan Colvin to their prom court, with Queen Susie Udall and King Colin Quinn presiding over the court.

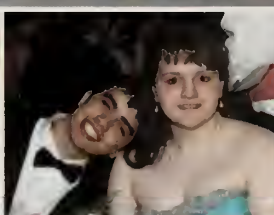

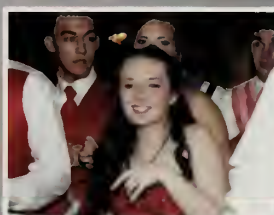

Jason Correia showed off his dance moves at the front of the dance floor all night long.

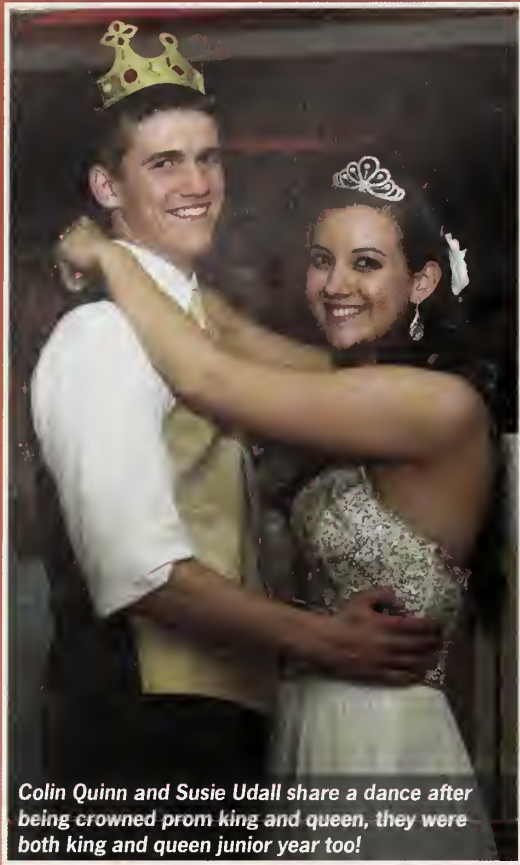

The dance floor was packed all night as the seniors made the most out of the time they had left together.

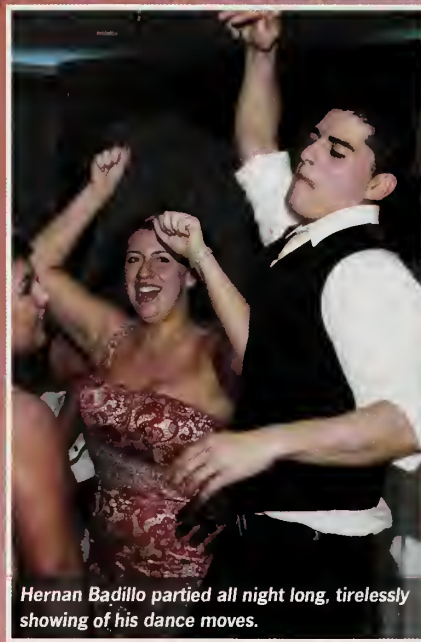

Students got a lot of use out of the beach towels everyone took home. Hernan Badillo began to dance with his!

An Colvin and Julia Caudle share a dance together after being elected to the prom court.

Informal Class Day

Informal Class Day is a day when the entire school comes together one last time to celebrate the senior's accomplishments. The seniors use it as another graduation practice and a rehearsal for Formal Class Night the same evening. As the seniors file into the Kenneth Pickering gymnasium, the band plays and the underclassmen watch from the bleachers, waiting for the day it is finally their turn. The senior class officers present the class history, describing our accomplishments as a class from freshman to senior year. The yearbook editors present the yearbook dedication and announce which juniors will be taking over their positions. The superlatives are passed down from seniors to juniors, which always gets a laugh, and then we watch the senior slideshow, chronicling our experiences together as a class. Every senior leaves excited to finally graduate, and every underclassman leaves knowing they will miss their friends in the class of 2014.

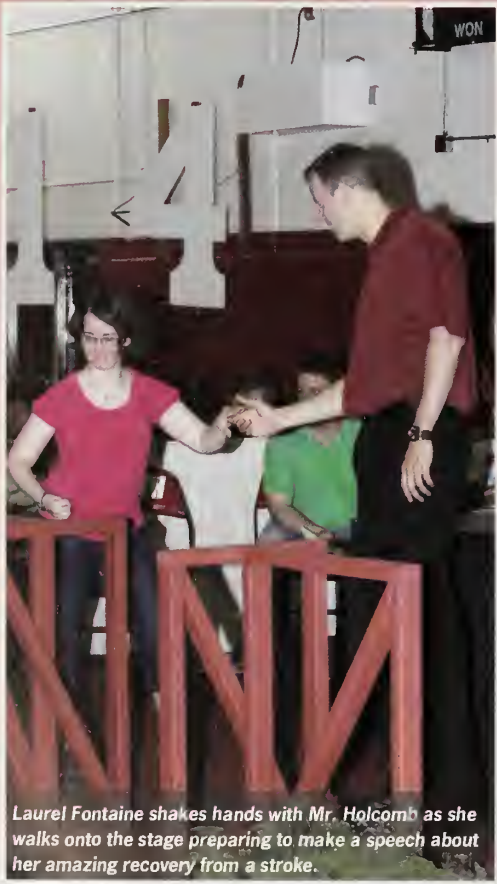

—Julie Johnson

Colin Quinn shakes hands with Mr. Holcomb as he walks onto the stage.

Mr. Holcomb welcomes everyone to this year's informal class day.

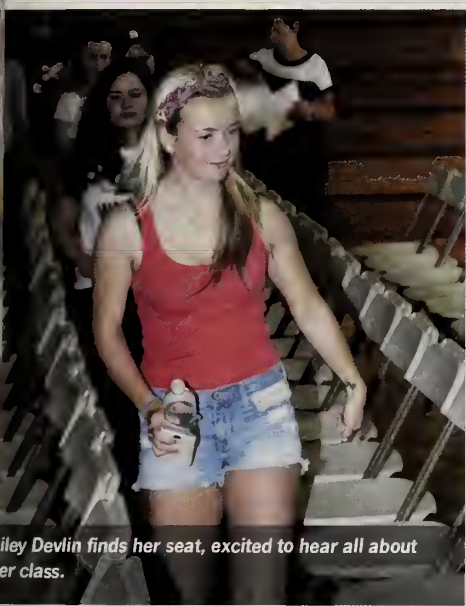

Laurel Fontaine shakes hands with Mr. Holcomb as she walks onto the stage preparing to make a speech about her amazing recovery from a stroke.

Senior Activities

Underclassmen look on as the seniors file into the gym. This would be the last time the entire school was together before the seniors leave NAHS.

Wiley Devlin finds her seat, excited to hear all about her class.

Salutatorian Catherine Roukhadze listens intently to the class history.

Jill Costello leads the class in the pledge of allegiance.

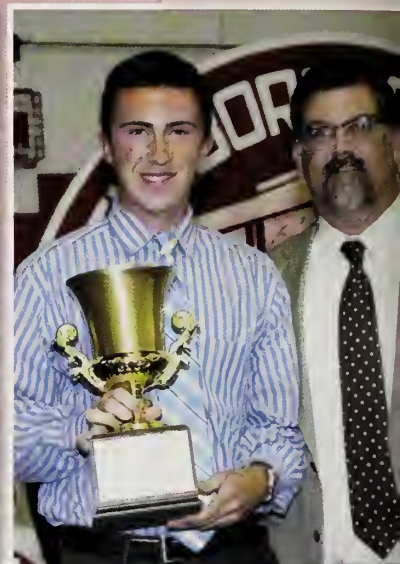

Formal Class Night

The annual formal class night, held this year on June 4, 2014, was a truly special night celebrating the achievements of the graduating class. After a truly inspiring speech by senior and stroke-survivor Laurel Fontaine, senior essay contest winners Julia Caudle, Emily Elia, and Krista Nickerson demonstrated wisdom beyond their years as they eloquently gave their speeches about the benefits of failure, connectedness through memories, and the importance of living in the present. Many academic awards and scholarships were awarded, as well as the annual athletic cups given to Ryan Croke and Megan Colleran. Principal Holcomb also recognized the top ten students of the class before formally recognizing salutatorian Catherine Roukhadze and valedictorian Daniel Colvin. The dedication of the 2014 yearbook was announced in the memory of former beloved history teacher Edward Shockro. At the end of the night, students lined the cafeteria to shake hands and greet each parent offering their congratulations. Overall, it was a magical and emotional night for the graduating class, offering a sort of capstone to the students' high school careers before graduation.

-Dan Colvin

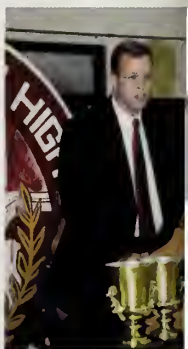

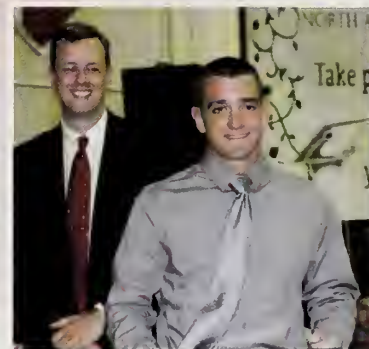

Megan Colleran received this year's athletic cup for her outstanding achievements in softball. She will be continuing her softball career at UMass Amherst.

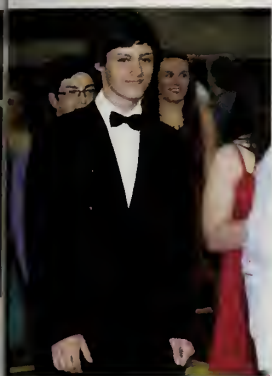

Ryan Croke stands beside Mr. Kummer after receiving the athletic cup for all his athletic achievements in soccer and track.

Laurel Fontaine began the night with an inspirational speech about her journey after having a stroke at a very young age. She told the crowd that anything can be accomplished with hard work.

Meghan Brandley poses for a picture after receiving multiple awards throughout the night.

Morgan Cadd, Marie Fournier, and Nicole Hastry performed the senior song, "The Call" by Regina Spektor alongside other senior vocalists.

Julie Johnson receives a scholarship in honor of Megan Duffy.

Graduation

Three years, eight months, twenty-nine days, ten hours, forty-five minutes and 29 seconds ago, we were just beginning our journey here at North Attleboro High School and now it was all coming to an end. On June 6th, 2014 we rounded the track and proceeded to our spots on Raymond E. Beaupre Field in front of the large crowd of family, friends and teachers. We first took a moment of silence to remember two of our fellow classmates, Meghan Duffv and Mallorie Lindo, who were with us in spirit that day. Class President, Colin Quinn, then began by welcoming everyone and ripping up his speech to prove to students that they should stay true to themselves while also living the life they want to live. Salutatorian, Catherine Roughadze and Valedictorian, Dan Colvin read their excellent speeches inspiring the graduates. The senior members of the band performed for their final time playing "Stardance". Superintendent Cullen read an inspirational Irish poem that we all took to heart. Then came our big moment, where we all went up to the stage to receive our diplomas from Mr. Holcomb, Mrs. Cullen, and Mr. Poirier. To finish off the ceremony, Mr. Holcomb gave his final graduation speech as a high school principal and finally told us to move our tassels. In the blink of an eye, we went from being students to alumni. Our caps flew in the air and the era of the Class of 2014 at North Attleboro High School was complete. Another chapter in our lives finished and now as we turn the page, we are excited for what the future holds. At the end of graduation, we knew we left behind an irreplaceable legacy and that wherever we go; Big Red will always be a part of us.

-Colin Quinn

Salutatorian Catherine Roukhadze delivers her speech about making the future what you want.

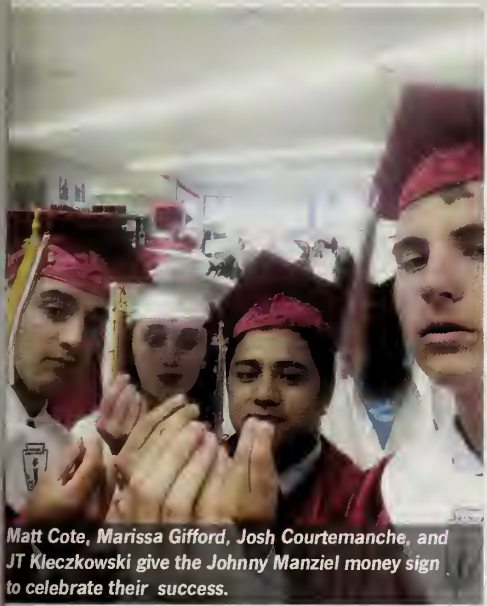

Class President Colin Quinn welcomes everybody to the commencement ceremony. He went out of his comfort zone this night and threw out his speech while talking.

Senior Activities

Graduates toss their caps in the air against Mr. Holcomb's wishes in order to celebrate their graduation from North Attleborough High School. The class of 2014 went even further and tossed them twice, once before they had actually graduated!

Matt Cote, Marissa Gifford, Josh Courtemanche, and JT Kleczkowski give the Johnny Manziel money sign to celebrate their success.

Julia Caudle and Alexis Jankowski became good friends in their time at NAHS and will continue to be for years to come.

Jon Roy and McKenzie Sherman pose together before proceeding out on the track.

Senior Activities

Valedictorian Dan Colvin speaks to the graduates about working beyond themselves.

Superintendent Cullen addresses the crowd and congratulates the class of 2014.

Matt Silva stands waiting for his name to be called to receive his diploma.

Evan Sweeney helps Mr. Holcomb empty a tube of toothpaste to deliver his message to the graduates that they should be careful about what they say in the future, because it can't be taken back.

Senior Activities

Top 10 graduates stand with Mr. Holcomb before the ceremony began. These ten students worked very hard during their four years at North to earn this honor. They will be memorialized on a plaque in the lobby.

Tyler Barton receives his diploma from School Committee Chairman Chip Poirier.

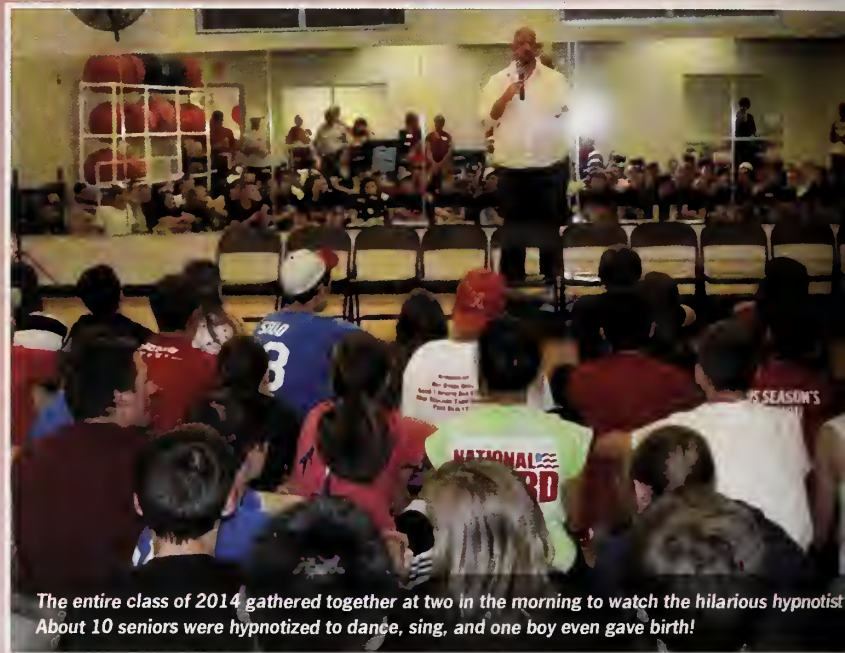

Friends pose together while waiting to walk out to the field for the graduation ceremony.

All Night Grad Party

The senior class of 2014 came together for one last time at the YMCA to celebrate just hours after their graduation. The night was a success from start to finish as the seniors took advantage of every activity. Competitions were created on the bungee run, in the jousting arena, or in the sumo wrestling suits. Many seniors participated in pickleball and basketball games throughout the night, and of course who can forget about the huge dodgeball game that almost everyone played in. If the seniors weren't playing in the gym, they were getting a caricature drawn or taking a personalized photobooth picture with all their friends! Late in the night the entire class piled into the studio to watch Paul Ramsey hypnotize members of the senior class and get the crowd in tears from laughing so hard. Some seniors were lucky enough to leave with an amazing raffle prize which differed from gift cards to iPad minis to mini fridges! The class of 2014 could not be more thankful for all the hard work the many parent volunteers put in to create such an amazing and fun night. Although the seniors were sad to see the last time they would all be together as a class end, they know that the memories they had made together through the years will last forever.

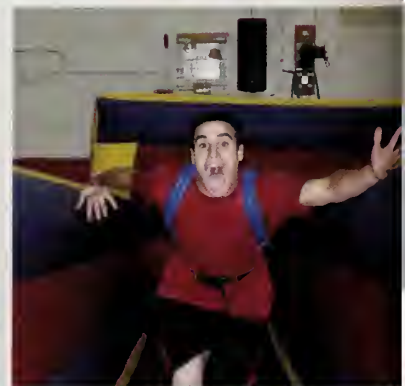

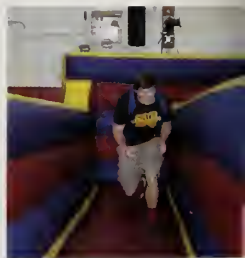

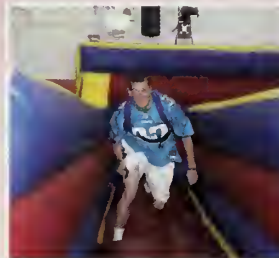

-Krista Kapitan

The entire class of 2014 gathered together at two in the morning to watch the hilarious hypnotist. About 10 seniors were hypnotized to dance, sing, and one boy even gave birth!

Many boys and girls lined the gym to participate in an intense game of dodgeball during the night. The seniors gave it their all to be the last person standing.

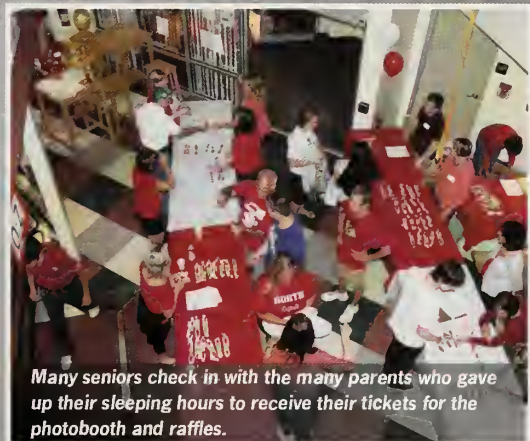

Senior Activities

Colin Quinn, Ryan Croke, Jt Kleczkowski, Anthony Manganaro, Ryan Gagne, Jake Lang, Jill Costello, Bridget Costello, and Rachel Murphy take time out of their busy night to pose for a group photo. They truly made the most out of the last time the senior class would all be together!

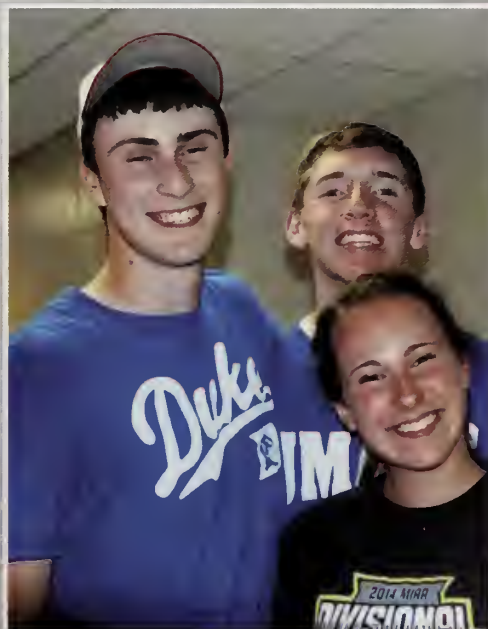

JT Kleczkowski suits up to sumo wrestle his opponent. As you can see from JT's face he was determined to win the fight.

Many seniors check in with the many parents who gave up their sleeping hours to receive their tickets for the photobooth and raffles.

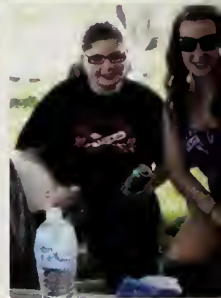

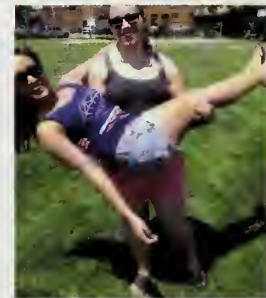

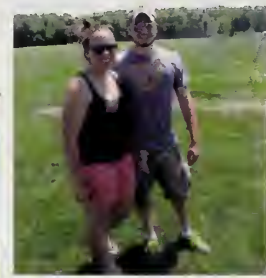

Jake Lang and Ryan Gagne are bestfriends out of the wrestling arena, but the competition became so intense inside it that they ended up falling right out of it!

Senior Cookout

The senior cookout began on a hot June day with a memorial for Mallorie Lindo, a former classmate of the class of 2014, who passed away from epilepsy. After the ceremony, the Class of 2014 made their way to the baseball field to eat, listen to music, and hangout with their friends. The day was a success with Mr. Rizzo 'manning' the grill and Reet Chowdhary working as the DJ. The excitement of summer and graduation was present as the students sweltered under the sun and graduation weighed prominently on everyone's minds.

Top 10 Breakfast

The Top Ten Breakfast is an event that recognizes the top ten students from North Attleboro and the surrounding schools. The event also recognizes an unsung hero, who earns a scholarship. This year's unsung hero was Meg Brandley. The top ten from this year include;

From the editors

This year was an interesting one, but in the end we are all very proud of the book we put together. We had a great time working together and bouncing ideas off each other to make this book the best it could be.

We are grateful for the help of our advisor, Mrs. Sandra McCrory, and for the help of various underclassmen throughout the year. We are all excited to share this year's edition of the Northern Light yearbook with you, and we hope you enjoy it as much as we do!

Thank you!

The Northern Light Staff would like to send their sincerest thanks to all of the teachers and faculty for making this school year a success. From cooking burgers at the senior BBQ to sorting out schedules so we could take the classes we wanted, we would not have had such an amazing four years at North Attleboro High School without your help.

Your favorite photos

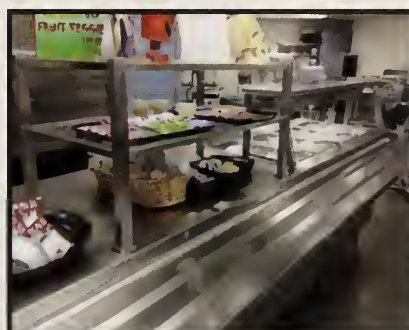

Throughout April and May, students at North Attleborough High School placed weekly votes on their favorite photographs from memorable moments over the course of the school year. Here are the winning photos from each week! Did any of your favorites win?

Café North

The cafeteria staff is a wonderful group of people who work from 6:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. daily. They support students by providing high quality breakfast, snacks, and lunch. Their main focus is serving food that will sustain students so they are able to thrive in an academic environment.

Meghan Duffy

Meghan Duffy

July 27, 1996 – September 13, 2007

Meghan Kathleen Duffy was a free spirit. She did not let a single thing stand in her way. Meghan did not even let getting diagnosed with leukemia, which eventually evolved into osteosarcoma, which is a form of bone cancer, at age 10 stop her. Meghan knew how to make light of any situation. Her sense of humor, contagious smile, and laughter could light up a room brighter than the sun ever could. She was the strongest person anyone could ever meet and she never once let her disease define her. Meghan spent her days smiling, not once dwelling on her sickness. Meghan was one of a kind and she will forever be remembered as a fighter, and a beautiful human being. Fly high butterfly, we all love you so much.

—Ryan Speicher

Meghan was a friend to all who knew her. She was incredibly kind to all she met, and extremely generous. Meg's brilliant smile could light up any room she entered, no matter what horrible experience she had just endured. Her determination to run the Pedal Power bike ride each year continues to inspire me because of her spirit of giving to others in the same situation as herself. We'll always miss you, fly high butterfly.

—Julie Johnson

Meg was a strong, brave and caring friend, who touched the hearts of everyone around her. She inspired her friends and classmates to become better people and to help those in need. Meg was defined not by her cancer, but by her strong character and lasting friendships. Meg's positive outlook on life, along with her fun-loving sense of humor and ever-present smile would brighten the day of all who knew her. Miss you always.

—Julia Hausmann

Mallorie Lindo

Mallorie Lindo

October 3, 1995 – March 20, 2013

For those of you who knew Mallorie, you understood her ability to touch the lives of everyone around her. She was a beautiful soul on the inside and out, and her vibrant spirit keeps her alive in our hearts. Mal was the kind of person who was always smiling. She would light up a room wherever she went, and was a true privilege to be around. No matter what she was going through or how difficult her day had been, you could always hear her contagious laugh, and witness her positive attitude. She drove you to be a better person, and to approach every situation with an open mind and an open heart.

—Jill Costello

I can remember when Mal came to Community School in second grade. She didn't know anyone, but her contagious laugh and huge smile had her plenty of friends in minutes. Ever since that day she came to my second grade class, we had countless memories and she was the best friend a girl could ask for. She was there for me when ever I needed her and she never failed to make me smile. She was also the strongest girl I've ever met. She never let what others said bring her down, and she never let her illness stop her from doing what she wanted. She is an inspiration to all, especially the class of 2014, and her crazy curly hair, her laugh, and her ever lasting smile will be remembered forever. Rest in the sweetest peace Mal, you will never be forgotten and have touched the hearts of us all.

—Julia Votta

Mallorie was an inspiration to all. With her bright smile, her crazy curly hair, and her completely contagious laugh she really knew how to leave an impression. Nothing could ever bring her down. She truly taught us all how to accept difficult times and still smile about it. I think it's easy to say we all are happy we had the opportunity to meet such a wonderful person.
